

04/06/07 (Thanks for giving me my life back!)

Dear Bill - First of all, thanks for taking my case initially. I was in a "tight spot" → already INDIC but you calmly assessed, analyzed, and concluded WE could win, in spite of the odds against us. Needless to say WE WON! and with flying colors.

I've talked to a few lawyer friends of mine, and they have NEVER heard of a D.A. giving up an INDICTMENT to go back to the Grand Jury.

This speaks volumes of the reputation you have. You were recommended to me by another attorney. I said you were HONEST. He was absolutely correct. He also said you were one of, if not, the FINEST criminal attorney in Houston. Again he was absolutely CORRECT. Thank you for everything Bill! Anyone who is reading this should know that you and your firm ARE the BEST in Houston. You operate with skill and INTEGRITY second to none. May God Bless You and Yours
Sincerely; -

I was so upset, scared and embarrassed (your professionalism, honesty and kindness were such comforts during an extremely difficult time. Your positive attitude helped calm me and as you said, "Keep my mind in neutral" as we waited for the grand jury's decision. Praise be to God and Praise be to You for a job well done.

I NEEDED THE BEST OF THE BEST
I GOT THE BEST OF THE BEST
I HAD YOU!!!

Thank you for being

Dear Ed:

I do not know what I could possibly say that could truly express how grateful I am to you and your team. The last several months have been the most difficult I have ever experienced. In my mind, everything hung in the balance over the outcome of this trial: my professional career, my permanent record, my dwindling savings account (just kidding) but most importantly my self-confidence. Facing a DWI charge was a degrading, humbling experience that left me feeling like a common criminal. In any event, I am a better person for the experience. Observing the people who walked in to that jail cell that night made me truly think about drinking and driving. The consequences, however devastating, could have been so much worse. Anyway, I will never forget pacing the halls with you as we awaited a verdict. (Or when you asked the cop if he washed his hands between arrests.) Thank you for your support and patience. You made me feel like a friend not just a client.

Re: Appreciation for you and your staff

Dear Matt:

I received your letter the other day informing me that my criminal matter had been dropped by the district attorney. That was certainly good news but it is not the reason for writing you and your firm this letter.

It is hard for one who has always thought of himself as a good example and has tried to be a good and honorable citizen of our great country to be in turn thought of and treated as a criminal. Criminals large and small are always criminals and I was most distressed by the thought of being ranked among those who do not respect our laws and the safety of our fellow citizens and to act in irresponsible and criminal ways.

I turned to Stradley, Chernoff & Alford for help in removing a stigma improperly imposed. In doing so I had to tell my friends, business associates and family that I was being charged as a criminal by the district. Thankfully you and your firm righted a wrong and removed the stigma of shame I carried. Please believe me when I say that I so appreciate you and your staff for removing that stigma. Also I want to tell you that your staff always treated me with respect and with professionalism. They rightfully deserve some of the credit for allowing me to fill better about myself.

As for me I will continue with my work, I will continue to be a good citizen and I will give respect to the Houston police force regardless for the senseless acts of a few of their ranks.

With appreciations I remain

Thank you so very much. You guys have done a great job for my family and I. Thank you for your professionalism and your legal expertise. My family and I can't thank you guys enough. This case could have taken months. You solved my case in just three weeks. You went right to work on the facts of our case. This has been the most frightening thing that has ever happened to my family and I. With your team at our side, our fear soon disappeared. If you are in a situation as I was, having this team of experts at your side is the best thing you can do for yourself. Thank you guys again, for a job well done.
